Speakers: Dr. Glenn Markle and Dr. Jon Breiner from College of Education, Criminal Justice, and Human Services (CECH), University of Cincinnati

Date: July 13 2009

Time: 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. (2 hours)

Prepared by:

Mr. Grant Keys, Winton Woods High School, Cincinnati, OH

Ms. Rachel Rice, Pre-service teacher, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH

This seminar was jointly coordinated by Drs. Glenn Markle and Jon Breiner on July 13 2009 in 641 Baldwin Hall from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

This time was an open-forum work session where the teachers were given the opportunity to work together or alone and share ideas and concerns with Dr. Markle and Dr. Breiner. One theme of the session was how are the teachers going to incorporate the 5 E's (Engage, Explore, Explain, Elaborate, and Evaluate) into their classroom implementation plans. The last E (Evaluate) is the best place to start by asking yourself, "What do I want my students to know/be able to do?" Everything in the lesson should support the answer to that question. Another theme of the meeting was transforming the lesson plan into the website format.
