

Work 6 - 10 Hours/Week in a school building, with secondary students and teach them about the practical applications of engineering. Receive a tuition scholarship for $5000 for the academic year!

ENGINEERING SENIORS: What about a Tuition SCHOLARSHIP?

DEADLINE:  Friday, August 29 th , 2014	WHAT?  Choose Ohio First Scholarship Program (COFSP)	Commitment?  10 Hrs./Week	Fill out the application online http://www.eng.uc.edu/step/ret/archive/2014/COFSP/  Look for COFSP application link on the homepage. Fill out the application, get a letter of recommendation, and your transcripts and submit by August 29, 2014.
--	---	--	--

How does the COFSP Scholarship work? Apply today!

- Assist a secondary classroom teacher for 6-10 hrs/wk from fall to spring.
- Share your math and science expertise.
- Be a role model for the profession of engineering.
- Share practical applications of math and science concepts as they relate to engineering.
- Share your senior capstone project with students.
- Earn $5000 towards tuition this year.

Deadline is August 29th! Obtain a letter of recommendation and a transcript. (Contact Debbie Liberi at liberid@ucmail.uc.edu w/questions.)

